

“TRANSFORMATION” - Submission Requirements

Deadline for entries: Friday, March 8th - Exhibition: April 11th to May 31st, 2013

Exhibition to run during the Toronto International Jewellery Festival and the Society of North American Goldsmiths Conference, Meta-Mosaic 2013

1. Entrants must be metal artists living and working in Canada. The submitted design(s) must be original, fabricated metal works reflecting the theme of the Exhibition; works must have been completed after May 2012.
2. Entrants may submit up to two (2) entries for one fee. They may be hollowware or sculptural objects or jewellery.
3. Entries must be available for exhibition at Zilberschmuck, Toronto, ON, from April 11th to May 31st, 2013.
4. Each entry must be accompanied with the title of the piece and an artist's statement, 150 words or less, explaining how the work reflects the theme of the exhibition. The statement should be clearly typewritten on a single sheet of paper that does not bear the entrants name or any other identifying marks. Entrants will also include an electronic version of the statement on a CD, in a Word or text file document.
5. Artists whose pieces are accepted for the exhibition grant permission for their work to be photographed. By submitting work, the artist grants to Zilberschmuck the right to use such photographs for the purposes of promoting and publicizing the Exhibition and Zilberschmuck Gallery.
6. All designs must be reasonably priced and available for sale. In the event of sales, Zilberschmuck shall be entitled to a commission of 50% of the retail price of each piece sold at $999.99 and under and 40% for pieces priced $1000.00 or over, all prices exclusive of sales taxes. The applicable percentage of the retail price payable to the artist shall be paid within 30 days of the close of the Exhibition.
7. While on the gallery's premises, the work will be at Zilberschmuck's risk. In the event of damage to the work, compensation will be limited to the reasonable cost of repair. In the event of loss or theft, the artist shall receive the applicable consignment percentage as if the piece had been purchased.

Fee: $25.00 - Cash or cheques made payable to Zilberschmuck. The fee is non-refundable. Do not send cash in the mail.

Packaging Instructions:

Entries must be packed in a box with the artist's contact information, artist's statement about the work, CD of statement, entry fee and sufficient postage for return shipping. (Canada Post's Website www.canadapost.ca offers shipping prices based on size, weight and distance. You may send stamps, pre-paid postage envelopes or cheques for return postage.) The box must be strong enough to withstand repeated mailings. Zilberschmuck accepts no responsibility for work damaged, improperly packed or lost during shipping to or from Zilberschmuck. Insure as required. Arrangements are required for drop off and return hand pick up.
